Scaling & Pop Outs – Understanding The Source and Methods of Avoidance

The ACI NE Ohio Chapter invites you to join us on April 19, 2018 in welcoming Mr. John Fauth from ChemMAsters, Inc.

The presentation on Scaling & Pop Outs – Understanding The Source and Methods of Avoidance will explore some of the elements that can contribute to pop outs and premature scaling of exterior slab on grade concrete. Participants will become aware of practices and methods to more consistently achieve an optimized outcome when placing ready mix concrete for exterior slab on grade applications.

Topics will include liquid applied concrete curing, sealing and treatment options and their relative performance characteristics in order to better understand why and how products work, and to more accurately and confidently select the right material for the job.

This presentation is relevant to concrete contractors, ready mix operators and distributors of concrete related supplies.

Presenter, Mr. John Fauth joined ChemMasters, Inc. in November 2009 and is currently the Vice President, Marketing & Business Development. He spent the previous nineteen years as principle of a manufacturer's representative agency based in Pittsburgh, PA engaged in field sales and service to the construction industry.

John has written articles published in industry magazines, presented seminars and webinars related to the cure and protection of concrete.

John holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree from Bucknell University and is a native of Buffalo, NY.

This meeting will welcome students from Westlake High School who participated in the 21st Annual Student Model Home Design Contest hosted by Westlake High School. ACI invites students and their families to join us for this presentation. Students and their families can attend the dinner and presentation for free.

There will be 1.0 Continuing Professional Development hour (CPD) offered for this presentation.

The cost includes 2 drink tickets (beer/wine), buffet dinner and presentation.

Chapter Members: $35.00 / Non-Members: $40.00 / Students and their families FREE (This month only!)
