ACI Concrete Laboratory Testing Technician Certification

Sponsored and Presented by The Northeast Ohio Chapter of ACI

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This certification program is for the certification of laboratory testing personnel and will include both the ACI Level I Aggregate Testing Technician, and the ACI Level 1 Strength Testing Technician exams. These exams will be offered to obtain the ACI Concrete Laboratory Testing Technician Level One (1) Certification. This certification is one of the requirements of the AMRL for laboratory personnel.

- COURSE DATES: Session 1: (Review – Practical Tests ONLY) May 4th, 2019 - 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Session 2: (Exam) May 11th, 2019 – 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
- COURSE CONTENT: Both the written and the performance exams for the aggregate testing and strength testing will be given on the same day. The written exam for the Strength Testing is a one (1) hour closed book exam, and the Aggregates it is a two (2) hour open book exam. Please refer to the ACI International website for additional details for these two certification programs.
- PLEASE note: this program will not include any review on the written portions but will offer a hands-on review of the applicable ASTM Specifications for the aggregate and strength practical test.
- COURSE LOCATION: BASF Headquarters
 23700 Chagrin Boulevard
 Beachwood, OH 44122
- PPE REQUIREMENT: Individuals are required to wear proper PPE to the review and examination sessions.
Proper PPE includes: safety glasses; gloves; safety work shoes (steel toe preferred). No flip flops, crocs, tennis shoes, dress shoes, etc.
- Not having the proper foot attire could result in the registrant not being allowed to take the practical test.
- COURSE FEE: $517.00 per person for Northeast Ohio ACI Chapter Members for both tests
$328.00 per person for Northeast Ohio ACI Chapter Members for one test
- $608.00 per person for Non-Members for both tests
$386.00 per person for Non-Members for one test
- $153.00 for each Written or Practical Retest
- REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Friday, April 26, 2019
 Register early so that you will receive your workbook prior to the exam.

*Should you reschedule continually within one year's time, and a full year passes from your original application date, you will be required to pay the initial course fee again.
